DOLLAR WHEAT.

That's What It Was Last Week, But Now It's 96 Cents.

As predicted, wheat touched the dollar mark last week, and in some instances, when the quality was extra good, it went two cents higher.

Friday and Saturday the grain sold for $1 per bushel on the Columbia market, but Monday it took a tumble and went to 90 cents. From that it steadily rose until it reached 96 cents yesterday. A number of farmers have let go their grain the past week, and those who did not are doubtless sorry.

Rich Little Farm For Sale.

One mile and a-half from Columbia on Hampshire pike; containing about 40 acres of rich level land; high and dry building site; two small houses and two barns; plenty of good water for man and beast. Price $2,850; terms easy. Address "H." care the Herald, or inquire at the first toll gate on the Hampshire pike. aug13 3t

A Swell Affair.

Columbia's colored "400" were out on dress parade last Wednesday night. The occasion was the marriage of Emma True to James B. Dodson, the efficient porter at Wolldridge & Irvine's drug-store, which was consummated at Mt. Lebanon Baptist church at 8 o'clock.

There were ushers and flower girls and the various other features necessary to a swell marriage. The nuptial knot was tied by Elder Nixon, and Jim and his bride—as happy as two doves just mated—were ushered into the delights of honeymoon bliss with the good wishes of many friends, both white and colored.

VALUABLE FARM FOR SALE!

If not disposed of privately before that time, I will, on

Tuesday, October 5, 1897,

on the premises, located three miles east of Spring Hill, in the Eleventh Civil District of Williamson County, Tennessee, at 11 a. m., offer at public sale to the highest and best bidder, the farm of the late Mrs. E. L. Wade, more or less. This farm is well improved, has 380 acres tillable land, with more than 200 acres of the remainder in blue-grass. Running stock water is accessible from any part of the farm, with numerous, never failing springs. This land will first be offered in lots and then as a whole, whichever way brings the best price, shall be accounted the true sale.

Containing 620 Acres,

Terms of Sale:

One-third cash and the balance in one and two years with interest from January 1, 1898, at which time possession will be given. The right to sow wheat will be granted the purchaser, barring damage to growing crops.

JOHN F. WADE,
Administrator.

Shoes at Cost.

I have brought here from Guthrie, Ky., my stock of shoes and Gents' finishing goods, to be sold at cost, as I mean to quit business, and have placed them in the store now occupied by Mrs. H. F. Fariss.

The stock consists of a very fine line of ladies' and children's shoes, such as Zeigler, Dittman and Krippehoff make; also hosiery, underwear, collars, handkerchiefs, men's shoes, hats and furnishing goods.

Do not miss this opportunity, as everything must go in the next 60 days.
